

Candidate Profile for Lou Lou Al Takach

Running to represent Indigenous Learners

Tell us about yourself

My name is Lou Lou Al Takach. I am doing medical office assistant in Bow valley college under the business school. I am of two nationalities indigenous Canadian and Lebanese. My indigenous ancestry comes from both Algonquin and Iroquois tribe from Quebec.

What do you know about the Students' Association of Bow Valley College?

The Student's Association of Bow Valley College or (SABVC) is an organization that is dedicated to the effective representation of Bow Valley College students. The SABVC assist and support all Bow Valley students in order to reach their goals and maintain their future job.

Diversity is a strength of SABVC. In your own words, how would you contribute to promoting diversity to the membership of SABVC?

In addition, diversity is not about how we differ, diversity is about embracing one's another's uniqueness. I would like to encourage BVC students to be open minded and to accept others culture, traditions, and belief. When we understand other peoples culture and believes we understand them more. Life is full of knowledge, experience, and stories that we must learn from.

What is your platform?

My platform is to support and make all Bow valley students understand how beautiful and wonderful is indigenous culture. Indigenous people have a unique culture and Canada has. My second platform is to brace guide indigenous students at Bow Valley College towards their dream and goals.
